

Why Howard Stern? I was mortified while watching the Grammy's with my young niece when Madonna kissed Britney. My niece was really embarrassed as well. Howard Stern is harmless. Kids don't listen to him as much as they watch MTV and BET. You need to focus on something that really influences young minds, not Stern. I'm starting to feel that the USA is turning into Communist Russia. Fine Madonna, fine Justin and Janet. Do something that will make a difference. What's next? You'll bleep the word vagina from Will and Grace?
